

From: John Hightower
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/17/01 4:02am

It's time to let Microsoft's competitors compete by making better products, not paying off the Justice Department with political contributions. The anti-trust laws are for the benefit of end users (consumers), NOT competitors who can't make the grade with customers because of shabby marketing of their inferior products.

The settlement should stand as is.

The original case should never have been brought in the first place.